

Kluska, the word meaning "Dumpling" in Polish, began as a small home based business.

Its founder Barbara, inspired by generations of Polish women in her family, who orally passed down their cooking secrets since 1830, began re-creating those unforgettable flavours and textures. Her long embedded passion for cooking was soon receiving fast growing recognition and people from all around Victoria were coming to South East Melbourne to try Barbara's delicious meals.

Among Barbara's specialties, are the wide variety of handmade dumplings; pierogi, pyzy, kluski slaskie, pierogi leniwe and kopytka.

Barbara's philosophy and art of cooking reflect the proud traditions of her homeland, Poland, and are characterised by authentic, fresh ingredients, handmade dough and filling, all using traditional techniques of preparation.

Kluska is one of the most authentic Polish restaurants you can find in Melbourne.

The entire menu consists of traditional, home cooked Polish meals, which are a true expression of the Polish culture and history.
